Law Enforcement Agenda

September 28, 2021

1. Personnel
2. Training
3. Shooting Calls
4. Total Calls for Service
5. Traffic Stops
6. August Stats

Personnel

Two of the three new hires have been accepted into the October TLETA Class. Unfortunately, due to COVID, the class size was reduced, causing our third new hire to be bumped, and they will have to wait until the February 2022 class.

Training

Captain Howell completed the South Eastern Command Leadership School in Jackson and graduated on September 24, 2021.

Detective Doss attended a week-long Criminal Investigations School in East Tennessee.

K-9 Officer Vanvleet and Officer Lewis are attending complimentary training, hosted by Millington PD, the week of Oct. 4th. This will be on advanced traffic stops, search and seizure, criminal investigation, and de-escalation techniques.

Shooting Calls

There were a total of five confirmed shots fired calls this month. Three were in Sunrise apartments. Two of these are believed to be related and associated with car thefts in the Memphis area. Detectives are working with other agencies and two suspects have been identified.

The other locations were Peeler Ave. and Baxter St. No injuries were reported at any of these locations. All these incidents are still under investigation.

Calls For Service – 974

Traffic Stops – 586

*Due to an upward movement of COVID cases and an increase in cases involving our officers. The department returned to a limited enforcement COVID protocol, which significantly reduced traffic stops.
